

BSA Troop 140

Scout Behavioral Guidelines & Contract

I _____, understand that I must be on my best behavior during all Boy Scout Activities. I further understand that misbehavior and inappropriate actions or activities will not be tolerated. I will remember that a Scout is courteous, kind and friendly. The Troop will work as a team and every Scout will:

Live by the Scout Oath
Live by and practice the Law
Live by and practice the Outdoor Code

Behavior that is not allowed at any Scout Functions includes, but is not limited to:

Disobeying junior or adult leaders, including Committee members
Hazing or bullying
Use of foul or inappropriate language
Hitting, fighting or similar actions
Refusing to follow Troop uniform policy
Not following safe Scoutcraft procedures
Leaving a designated area without an adult leader's permission
Lying, cheating or stealing
Being uncooperative
Disrupting activities
Intentionally damaging troop or personal property, gear or equipment
Refusing to take prescribed medications
Doing anything that would be considered unsafe or encouraging others to do anything unsafe

Anyone found in violation of the above will be disciplined. The following are examples of potential actions:

- For the next X weekly meetings (or troop activity(ies)) you attend, you must be accompanied by your parent, who will be responsible for supervising you the entire meeting (or activity).
- You will be suspended from the troop and all functions for X number of weeks.
- You will be counseled by the Scoutmaster and additional leaders to discuss your future participation with Troop 140.

Furthermore, I fully understand that the consequences of misbehavior will vary depending upon the severity of the incident. I understand that these consequences can include warnings, sitting out during an activity, parent conferences, having a parent take me home from an activity, and expulsion from the Troop.
